STEVE GOREN

Steve Goren began his real estate career in 1978, leasing and selling homes in the City of Detroit while completing his undergraduate studies in psychology at the University of Michigan. Mr. Goren went on to earn a Juris Doctor degree from Wayne State University and joined the family contracting business before returning to the commercial real estate field in 1986. Mr. Goren founded Armada Real Estate Services in 1991 and since then, the company has grown to become one of the leading full service commercial real estate firms in the Midwest.

Mr. Goren is a licensed real estate broker, a licensed residential builder, a member of both the Michigan and Florida State Bar Associations and belongs to the International Council of Shopping Centers (ICSC). In addition to presiding over all business aspects of Armada, Mr. Goren remains active as a broker representing landlords and tenants, as well as selling all types of income-producing commercial properties.
